The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the website for FM Brussel. The browser's address bar shows the URL `jointhesummer.fmbrussel.be/movies.php`. The website has a red header with the logo for fmbrussel98.8 and the slogan "JOIN THE CITY". A search bar is present with the text "zoek je auteur" and a magnifying glass icon. To the right of the search bar are links for "wedstrijdfilmpjes" and "meer uitleg", along with a logo for "brussels airlines". Below the header are social media icons for Twitter and Facebook. The main content area is titled "bal national 2013" and features a grid of video thumbnails. The first row contains four video thumbnails, each with a caption and social media sharing icons. The fourth thumbnail is a larger video player showing a crowd at a festival, with the caption "Hoedgekruid @ Bal National" and a timestamp of "20/07/2013 22:15". Below the video player are more social media icons and a "sluiten" button. The second row of thumbnails is partially visible at the bottom of the page.
